Indiana State Excise Police Announce March Activity for Gary Enforcement Initiatives

Gary, In. – During the month of March, the Indiana State Excise Police arrested six minors for illegal consumption of alcohol, one minor for being in a liquor store, arrested six people for possession of marijuana and three people for furnishing alcohol to minors.

Excise officers also issued twenty-nine summonses for open alcohol containers in vehicles, arrested eleven people for driving while suspended, issued three tickets to people for littering and cited one juvenile for possession of tobacco.

The following businesses were cited by the excise police:

Discount Liquors East 2090 Virginia Street was cited for sale of alcoholic beverages to a minor and allowing a minor to loiter.

Marathon Food Mart 2100 Virginia Street was cited for sale of single cigarettes.

Citgo Gas and Food Mart 901-927 E. 5th Avenue was cited for not having a tobacco sales certificate displayed.
